

Paper prescriptions go electronic

This practice is starting to send prescriptions electronically.

This will start from 5th February 2015, you will no longer need to attend the practice to pick up your prescription from the practice, you can go direct to your nominated pharmacy

Electronic Prescription Service

A more convenient way to get your prescription